

School of Nursing and Midwifery Trinity College Dublin

11th Annual Interdisciplinary Research Conference
Transforming Healthcare through Research and Education

4th & 5th November 2010

Conference Programme

This conference has been awarded Post-registration Category 1 Approval by An Bord Altranais

Thursday 4th November 2010

08.00	Registration Opens - registration desk will be attended for the full day
09.00-09.10	Lecture Theatre 2.57 Welcome Address Prof Mary McCarron: Head of the School of Nursing and Midwifery, Trinity College Dublin
09.15-10.00	Lecture Theatre 2.57 Plenary Session Educating the educated: Patient empowerment as a means of improving outcomes Mr John Redican - Irish Advocacy Network
10.00-10.30	Refreshment Break: Foyer and Dining Area

Concurrent Sessions

Lower Ground Floor Rooms - access via staircase in foyer beside Security Desk				Upper Ground Floor Rooms adjacent to Refreshment Area	First Floor access via staircase at front of foyer
Lecture Theatre 0.32 capacity 237	Seminar Room 0.30 capacity 46	Seminar Room 0.54 capacity 51	Seminar Room 0.55 capacity 34	Seminar Room 1.24 capacity 25	Lecture Theatre 2.57 capacity 154
Maternity Care	Research Methodology	Education	Children, Family and Young People's Health and Wellbeing	Service Provision	Intellectual Disability
10.30-11.00	A randomised trial of midwife-led care in the Republic of Ireland: maternal clinical outcomes of the MidU Study Declan Devane, National University of Ireland, Galway	Integrating formal and experiential learning methodologies in a new undergraduate programme in trauma studies in a post- conflict society: issues and dilemmas Helen Sinclair, Queen's University Belfast	Exploration of parents preferences for information sharing with children with cancer Aislinn Amory, Trinity College Dublin	Behavioural interventions and sexual health: a therapeutic review Ben Hughes, Trinity College Dublin	10.30-10.50 Breast awareness within an intellectual disability setting Siobhan Kirby, COPE Foundation 10.50-11.10 Women with Intellectual disabilities experiences of publicly-funded Irish health services during pregnancy Paul Keenan, Trinity College Dublin 11.10-11.30 Understanding the intricacies of communication for nursing practice: a review of the literature Colin Griffiths, Trinity College Dublin 11.30-11.50 Human rights and people with intellectual disabilities - an inclusive, participatory action project Fintan Sheerin, Trinity College Dublin 11.50-12.10 Using a 'Quality of Life' framework to guide and develop nursing practice Sandra Swanton & Paula Kelly, COPE Foundation
11.00-11.30	Women's experience of midwifery support in labour, a qualitative descriptive study Judith Mary Fleming, Trinity College Dublin	Participatory action research – negotiating access in maternity care settings Vivienne Brady, Trinity College Dublin	Student midwives experiences of Objective Structured Clinical Examinations (OSCEs) as a mode of assessment Maria Noonan, University of Limerick	Exploring the palliative care needs of young children with life-limiting neurodevelopmental disabilities and their families Eileen Courtney, Dublin City University	Partnering emergency response and mobile telemedicine during a mass casualty incident Theresa Davis, enVision eICU
11.30-12.00	Breastfeeding, decisions, choices, dilemmas Agnes Phelan, University College Cork	NVivo 8 and consistency in data analysis: A reflection on the use of a Qualitative Data Analysis (QDA) computer programme Michael Bergin, Waterford Institute of Technology	An evaluation of case based learning in a postgraduate cardiac nursing programme Niall McKenna & Paul Tierney, Queen's University Belfast	Technology used by children with complex needs within the home: the outcome of a baseline study Carmel Doyle, Trinity College Dublin	The experience of staff and families managing children's illness closer to home: implications for policy and practice Gemma Spiers, University of York
12.00-12.30	The use of "Supple Cups" to promote successful breastfeeding in women with flat or inverted nipples Kathleen Kane, Nyack Hospital	The importance of Reliability, Validity and Reproducibility of anthropometric measurements in estimating body composition in neonates Jacinta Byrne, National Maternity Hospital	Contributions to the validation of the measuring state and child resilience inventory with higher education nursing students – undergraduate nursing course Elisabete Fonseca, Escola Superior de Enfermagem de Coimbra	"The outside world"-caring for children with complex needs at home Honor Nicholl, Trinity College Dublin	Innovation and Collaboration - the role of the arts for patients in an acute hospital Hilary Moss, Teresa Quinn & Shona Lee, AMNCH
12.30-13.00	Street level bureaucracy and labour ward midwives' construction of childbirth in a technocratic environment Rhona O'Connell, University College Cork	The development of a short measure of collaborative clinical team working Colin Martin, University of the West of Scotland		Parents' experiences of palliative and terminal care for children (PATCH): a qualitative study Jayne Price, Queen's University Belfast	Exploration of the perceptions of emergency department healthcare providers towards family witnessed resuscitation at a metropolitan hospital in Perth Angela Bushby, Joondalup Health Campus
12.10-12.40 Session Discussion

Thursday 4th November 2010

12.30-13.30	Lunch Service: Foyer and Dining Area
13.30-14.00	Poster Presentations-Poster presenters should be available by their posters

14.00-14.45	Lecture Theatre 2.57 Plenary Session Economic downturns, budgets, health and successful ageing Prof Philip McCallion - University at Albany
-------------	---

Concurrent Sessions

Lower Ground Floor Rooms - access via staircase in foyer beside Security Desk				Upper Ground Floor Rooms adjacent to Refreshment Area		First Floor access via staircase at front of foyer
Lecture Theatre 0.32 0.30 capacity 237	Seminar Room 0.30 capacity 46	Seminar Room 0.54 capacity 51	Seminar Room 0.55 capacity 34	Seminar Room 1.24 capacity 25	Seminar Room 1.26 capacity 26	Lecture Theatre 2.57 capacity 154
Maternity Care	Primary Healthcare	Education	Children, Family and Young People's Health and Wellbeing	Practice Development	Health Promotion	Intellectual Disability
15.00-15.30 Antenatal education for women with a physical disability and sensory impairment: the clandestine challenges for antenatal educators in Ireland Denise Lawlor, Trinity College Dublin	Practice nurses perceptions of participating in a structured pulmonary education programme Dympna Casey, National University of Ireland, Galway	A partnership model for providing nursing and midwifery education and practice Mary Casey, University College Dublin	An Investigation of transition of young people with chronic illness from child to adult health services in Southern Ireland Thelma Begley, Trinity College Dublin	Designing a center for clinical nursing research to improve quality of care and patient safety: collaboration between nursing education and practice Mary Schaal, Thomas Jefferson University and Meg Bourbonniere & Sharon Millington, Thomas Jefferson University Hospital	Overweight nurses' experiences of their interactions with overweight patients Deborah McGreevy, Eastbourne District General Hospital	15.00-15.20 Reducing health inequalities in Scotland: The involvement of people with learning disabilities as NHS reviewers Martin Campbell, St Andrews University 15.20-15.40 A phenomenological study of the lived experience of family visits to a specialised treatment unit for individuals with intellectual disability and challenging behaviour Kathleen Byrne, Trinity College Dublin 15.40-16.00 A qualitative study into the experiences of nurses working with people with intellectual disabilities and mental health problems in Ireland Kumaresan Cithambaram, St Joseph's Intellectual Disability Services 16.00-16.20 Medication use & health inequalities. Quality Indicators for medication use in people ageing with intellectual disability and behaviour disorders: a Delphi study Bernadette Flood, Daughters of Charity 16.20-16.50 Session Discussion
15.30-16.00 Women with disabilities: accessibility issues for women receiving care within the publicly-funded maternity service in the Republic of Ireland Joan Lalor, Trinity College Dublin	One American Health System's Response to the Novel H1N1 Influenza Pandemic Patricia Connor-Ballard, Inova Learning Network and Nursing Research	The clinical role of lecturers in nursing in Ireland: Stakeholders perceptions on the role and policy suggestions for the future Pauline Meskill, National University of Ireland Galway	Diet and obesity in minority school aged children: implications for paediatric nurses Anne Brandes, Rutgers, the State University of New Jersey	Perceptions and views of self neglect: a client-centred perspective Mary Rose Day, University College Cork	The relationship between sexual health knowledge, sexual health practices and accessing professional sexual health advice Clare Whitfield & Julie Jomeen, University of Hull
16.00-16.30 Men's experiences of being present in the labour ward Lorraine Andrews, Trinity College Dublin	Cancer Cognitive processing changes of women survivors of breast cancer across cultures Marianne Giardini, State University of New York	Educational activity of the CNS/CMS and the impact of formal education Sheelagh Wickham, Dublin City University	Medication administration practices of children's nurses Maryanne Murphy, Trinity College Dublin	An evaluation of Back to the Floor Friday- an initiative to improve the patient experience in an acute NHS Trust in England Kathryn Jones, Imperial College Healthcare NHS Trust	A pilot study exploring the knowledge of older adults about their weight status (BMI) Teresa Wills, University College Cork
16.30-17.00 Optimising maternal sources of breastfeeding support during the first 6 weeks postpartum Roslyn Tarrant, Dublin Institute of Technology	Factors affecting ovarian cancer treatment decisions – A qualitative study among cancer nurse specialists Frances Drummond, National Cancer Registry		Children, young people and parents' views and experiences of attending Child and Adolescent Mental Health Services (CAMHS) Imelda Coyne, Trinity College Dublin	Qualified nurses perceptions' of clinical learning in Intensive Care Yvonne Muldowney, Trinity College Dublin	Self-perceived health and views on health promotion Anna-Maija Pietilä, University of Eastern Finland
17.30-19.00 Tour of Book of Kells and Long Room with wine reception

Poster Presentations Thursday 4th November

Poster No.	Title of Poster	Name of Presenter/s
1	Supporting and mentoring young mothers at university. A nursing and midwifery innovation	Jennifer Rowe University of the Sunshine Coast
2	Relax a little! Reducing stress in cardiac rehabilitation patients	Rebecca Powers Inova Alexandria Hospital
3	Mindfulness matters! Reconnecting nurses with their caring core	Susan Rogers Inova Alexandria Hospital
4	An exploration of factors that may influence nurses pain assessment and management decisions	Benita Wilson University of Hull
5	Fathers matter too: involving both fathers and mothers in child health research	Jayne Price Queen's University Belfast
6	An expression of love - midwives' experiences in the encounter with lesbian women and their partners	Bente Dahl Spidsberg Akershus University College
7	The Perceptions of Care Adjective Check List–Revised (PCACL-R) evaluated in a large UK Maternity care population	Colin Martin University of the West of Scotland
8	Is genuine informed consent possible? Views by mothers donating placenta	Arja Halkoaho Hospital District of Northern Savo
9	A systematic review of health literacy in Cochrane review articles on pediatric asthma educational interventions: searching beyond rigorous design	Mary Beth Zeni The Cleveland Clinic Foundation
10	Dwell time of peripheral venous catheters on a medicine ward of a central hospital: gap between practices and guidelines	Anabela de Sousa Salgueiro-Oliveira Escola Superior de Enfermagem de Coimbra
11	Sense of coherence and related factors	Anna-Maija Pietilä University of Eastern Finland
12	Efficacy of cognitive adaptation training in schizophrenia - a randomized clinical trial	Jens Peters Hansen University of Southern Denmark
13	Understanding symptoms from a gendered perspective within a realist context	Michael Bergin Waterford Institute of Technology
14	Factors which cause violence and aggression in the Emergency Department: Emergency nurses' perceptions	Shirley Angland University Hospital Galway
15	Publicly-funded Irish Health services provided to women with an intellectual disability during pregnancy, child-birth and early motherhood - service providers views	Fintan Sheerin Trinity College Dublin
16	Competency assessment in midwifery practice, what students think?	Sandra Atkinson & Maebh Barry University of Limerick
17	Public health nurses best practice initiatives in supporting breast feeding mothers	Mary O'Connor Public Health Nurse
18	Developing a medication management programme for undergraduate nursing students to support their learning in a paediatric practice setting	Doris O'Toole Children's University Hospital
19	Stress and stressors in the clinical environment: a comparative study of fourth-year student nurses and newly qualified general nurses in Ireland	Patricia Suresh Louth County Hospital
20	A phenomenological study to explore the experience of the preceptor/mentor when assessing borderline /weak nursing students in clinical area	Sara Kennedy Waterford Institute of Technology
21	Best Practice –Safe Practice “The first Irish Hospital to adopt a completely closed peripheral vascular catheter system”	Charlotte Hannon and Maureen Scanlan Sligo General Hospital
22	A strategy to improve care of patients with a peripheral intravenous cannula	Ann Cummins Mercy University Hospital Cork
23	Best practice models in care provision and care business management in nursing homes internationally	Teresa Wills University College Cork

Friday 5th November 2010

08.00	Registration Opens (registration desk will be attended all day)
09.00-09.45	Lecture Theatre 2.57 Plenary Session: Developing a culture of respect for children Ms Emily Logan - Ombudsman for Children
09.45-10.30	Refreshment Break and Book Launch Clinical Skills in Children's Nursing, edited by Imelda Coyne, Freda Neill and Fiona Timmins 2010 Oxford University Press The book is being launched by Emily Logan During the refreshment break, as part of the Arts in Healthcare theme, students from the School of Nursing and Midwifery will perform an installation in the Foyer

Concurrent Sessions

Lower Ground Floor Rooms access via staircase in foyer beside Security Desk			Upper Ground Floor Rooms adjacent to Refreshment Area		First Floor Rooms access via staircase at front of foyer
Seminar Room 0.30 <small>capacity 46</small>	Seminar Room 0.54 <small>capacity 51</small>	Seminar Room 0.55 <small>capacity 34</small>	Seminar Room 1.24 <small>capacity 25</small>	Seminar Room 1.26 <small>capacity 26</small>	Seminar Room 2.51 <small>capacity 33</small>	Lecture Theatre 2.57 <small>capacity 154</small>
Mental Health	Education	Children, Family and Young People's Health and Wellbeing	Chronic Illness and Rehabilitation	Women's Health	Arts in Healthcare The Faces of Nurses	Maternity Care
10.30-11.00	The development of evidence-based practice among Irish psychiatric nurses: perceived sources of evidence, barriers, facilitators and skills to achieving evidence-based practice Babu Lal Yadav, National Forensic Mental Health Services	Student participation in the Nutrition and cancer study – contributing to improvement in clinical practice Christine Tschudi-Madsen, Oslo University College	Assessing NHS Trusts compliance to child health policy standards - celebrating good practice Lesley Coles & Alan Glasper, Queen Alexandra Hospital	A Cochrane Review of interventions preventing central venous catheter related infections in haemodialysis patients Margaret McCann, Trinity College Dublin	Toward continuity of care across the childbearing/ early parenting continuum: the Newborn and Family Drop-in Service Jennifer Rowe, University of the Sunshine Coast	Tolstoy, stories, and facilitating insight in end of life care: exploring ethics through vicarious experience Ann Begley & Richard Henry, Queen's University Belfast	Childbirth in exile: asylum seeking women's experience of childbirth in Ireland Carolyn Tobin, University of New Hampshire
11.00-11.30	Recovery education in mental health: findings from a national evaluation Agnes Higgins, Trinity College Dublin	A study of nurses' inferences of patients' physical pain Benita Wilson, University of Hull	Resource-enhancing psychosocial support in family situation: views of families Arja Häggman-Laitila, Helsinki Metropolia University of Applied Sciences	Rethinking conceptual and theoretical underpinnings of symptom burden in inflammatory bowel disease Dawn Farrell, University College Cork	Sexuality in women with gynaecological cancer Vicky Cleary, University College Cork	Mary Grehan Arts Director Waterford Healing Arts Trust	Women's and professionals' views of fetal monitoring during labour: A meta synthesis Valerie Smith, Trinity College Dublin
11.30-12.00	An exploratory study of psychiatric nurses perception of recovery in mental health care Niamh Hurley, North Lee Mental Health Services	A cross-cultural study of ethical dilemmas in nursing: calculative and meditative care David Cruise Malloy, University of Regina	An exploration of the experiences of families of Indigenous children hospitalised in the Australian Capital Territory (ACT) Jillian Anne Guthrie, Australian Institute of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Studies	Physical activity levels in acute coronary syndrome patients, and factors that influence these levels Gabrielle McKee, Trinity College Dublin	Identifying and Describing the Cognitive, Social and Emotional Factors that Contribute to Women Delaying in Seeking Treatment for Acute Coronary Syndrome Niamh O'Callaghan, South Infirmary Victoria Hospital	Working with voice Petra Costigan	Reexamination of nipple shield use, infant growth, and maternal satisfaction Ilana R. Azulay Chertok, West Virginia University
12.00-12.30	Education provision for mental health professionals in the Republic of Ireland: an Evaluation Eddie McCann, Trinity College Dublin	Case Study: The caring parody - a patient's narrative Mary C Laurenson, University of Hull	Childhood obesity and the nutrition transition: a comparison of urban school-age children in Chile, Nicaragua, and the United States Jean Burley Moore, George Mason University	Client's perceptions of participating in a community based structured pulmonary rehabilitation programme Lorraine Mee, National University of Ireland Galway		Movement and body Petra Costigan	Singing lullabies in pregnancy: benefits for women and infants Maebh Barry, University of Limerick
12.30-13.00		Managing challenging situations in practice - a new programme developed to meet the specific needs of student nurses Mary McGrath, Dublin City University	Type 1 diabetes in childhood: current state of the science of intervention development Eileen Savage, University College Cork			Beyond the words Petra Costigan	An hermeneutic phenomenological study to explore Flemish midwives views on ideal and actual maternity care Liesbeth Van kelst, Catholic University Leuven

Friday 5th November 2010

12.30-13.30	Lunch Service: Foyer and Dining Area
13.30-14.00	Poster Presentations-Poster presenters should be available by their posters
12.30-13.30	Foyer Expert Panel on Arts in Healthcare: Nicola Dunne / Justin Parkes / Catherine O'Grady / Petra Costigan & Performance Theatre by 'In Our Shoes'

14.00-14.45	Lecture Theatre 2.57 Plenary session The contribution of nurses in the modern healthcare system Prof Alison While - King's College London
-------------	---

Concurrent Sessions

Lower Ground Floor Rooms access via staircase in foyer beside Security Desk			Upper Ground Floor Rooms adjacent to Refreshment Area	First Floor Rooms access via staircase at front of foyer
Seminar Room 0.30 <small>capacity 46</small>	Seminar Room 0.54 <small>capacity 51</small>	Seminar Room 0.55 <small>capacity 34</small>	Seminar Room 1.24 <small>capacity 25</small>	Seminar Room 2.51 <small>capacity 33</small>	Lecture Theatre 2.57 <small>capacity 154</small>
Mental Health	Symposium: Longitudinal evaluation of a health promoting school programme: methods, processes and outcomes	Children, Family and Young People's Health and Wellbeing	Ageing	Arts in Healthcare	Maternity Care
15.00-15.30	The views of community mental health nurses in the Republic of Ireland on nurse prescribing: a follow up study John Wells, Waterford Institute of Technology	15.00 - 16.15 Primary school based longitudinal research: baseline results from a study evaluating a healthy schools intervention among 500 children Catherine Maria Comiskey, Trinity College Dublin	The effect of the Kids Living Fit™ intervention on body mass index in children Karen Gabel Speroni, Inova Loudoun Hospital	Illuminating carers' understanding of end of life care in care of the elderly community units Una Molloy, St Francis Hospice	Workshop Art therapy in the healthcare environment Claire Colreavy Donnelly	Primigravidas experience of their first antenatal visit. A qualitative descriptive study Margaret Crowley-Murphy, Mid-Western Regional General Hospital
15.30-16.00	Contracting and suicidal behaviour: A risky practice? Jean Morrissey, Trinity College Dublin	Process evaluation in primary school based longitudinal research Karin O'Sullivan, Trinity College Dublin BMI measurement in primary school based longitudinal research Eleanor Hollywood, Trinity College Dublin	Generative dialogue & child neglect practice: how appreciative inquiry can create conversations that matter Bernie Carter, University of Central Lancashire	An exploration of the relationship between individual characteristics, psychological variables and the help seeking behaviour of older adults experiencing chronic pain Nicola Cornally, University College Cork	Normalising the third stage of labour in women at low risk of bleeding: a systematic review of the literature Cecily Begley, Trinity College Dublin
16.00-16.30	Experiences of mentally disordered offenders regarding mental health services utilisation prior to incarceration Michael Brennan, Trinity College Dublin	The practicalities of surveying children in primary school based longitudinal research Ciará Wynne, Trinity College Dublin A framework for navigating the ethical considerations involved in primary school-based longitudinal research Mary Quirke, National University of Ireland Maynooth	Family centred care: a gendered practice? Sue Higham, The Open University	Substance Misuse Health care professionals knowledge and attitudes regarding substance use and substance users Sean Kelleher, University College Cork	Dramatherapy Catherine O'Grady
16.30-17.00			A study to assess the effectiveness of a storybook in lessening anxiety in children aged 5 – 11 years undergoing tonsillectomy and adenoidectomy Anne Marie Tunney, University of Ulster	Prevalence of binge drinking among Irish nursing students Gobnait Byrne, Trinity College Dublin	Presentation on Performance Jenny Seddon, 'In Our Shoes'

Poster Presentations Friday 5th November

Poster No.	Title of Poster	Name of Presenter/s
1	Supporting and mentoring young mothers at university. A nursing and midwifery innovation	Jennifer Rowe University of the Sunshine Coast
2	Relax a little! Reducing stress in cardiac rehabilitation patients	Rebecca Powers Inova Alexandria Hospital
3	Mindfulness matters! Reconnecting nurses with their caring core	Susan Rogers Inova Alexandria Hospital
4	An exploration of factors that may influence nurses pain assessment and management decisions	Benita Wilson University of Hull
5	Fathers matter too: involving both fathers and mothers in child health research	Jayne Price Queen's University Belfast
6	An expression of love - midwives' experiences in the encounter with lesbian women and their partners	Bente Dahl Spidsberg Akershus University College
7	The Perceptions of Care Adjective Check List–Revised (PCACL-R) evaluated in a large UK Maternity care population	Colin Martin University of the West of Scotland
8	Is genuine informed consent possible? Views by mothers donating placenta	Arja Halkoaho Hospital District of Northern Savo
9	A systematic review of health literacy in Cochrane review articles on pediatric asthma educational interventions: searching beyond rigorous design	Mary Beth Zeni The Cleveland Clinic Foundation
10	Dwell time of peripheral venous catheters on a medicine ward of a central hospital: gap between practices and guidelines	Anabela de Sousa Salgueiro-Oliveira Escola Superior de Enfermagem de Coimbra
11	Sense of coherence and related factors	Anna-Maija Pietilä University of Eastern Finland
12	Efficacy of cognitive adaptation training in schizophrenia - a randomized clinical trial	Jens Peters Hansen University of Southern Denmark
13	Understanding symptoms from a gendered perspective within a realist context	Michael Bergin Waterford Institute of Technology
14	Connecting and caring through death review	Una Molloy St Francis Hospice
15	Association between changes in smoking habits in subsequent pregnancy and infant birth weight	Ilana R. Azulay Chertok West Virginia University
16	The career choices of students undertaking the Bachelor of Science in Children's and General Nursing Integrated programme	Eleanor Hollywood Trinity College Dublin
17	Nursing students attitudes to health promotion	Fiona Timmins Trinity College Dublin
18	Physical and psychological health outcomes for opiate users and their children	Catherine Maria Comiskey Trinity College Dublin
19	Motherhood and mental health: Are maternity services meeting the needs of women who experience mental health problems?	Agnes Higgins Trinity College Dublin
20	Mental health nurses perceptions and views of physical touch: an exploratory study	Madeline Gleeson Trinity College Dublin
21	Medication concordance amongst persons with a diagnosis of bipolar affective disorder: an exploration of psychiatric nurses' perceptions in an acute psychiatric in-patient setting	Sharon McSweeney